

Leadership Workshop for the 21st Century

Equine Facilitated Experiential Learning

April 12-13, 2011

Equine facilitated leadership and team building workshops offer an innovative approach. Participants will learn to:

- + balance individual and group needs within your company
- + create mutually respectful partnerships
- + motivate without dominating or micro-managing
- + establish and maintain effective boundaries
- + gain valuable information from emotions

CONTACT: Kelly Ramey (Approved Epona Instructor, EFEL)

314.791.2139 Kelly@ElysianFieldsXP.com

Working on the ground with horses allows participants to fully integrate the key components for successful managers, including leadership, emotional and social intelligence skills, calm assertiveness, and working together for the benefit of the entire team.

